HOLY APOSTLES ADULT GREEK SCHOOL REGISTRATION FORM.....8

Dear Holy Apostles Greek School Parents and Students,

Holy Apostles is excited to announce that our Greek School is now open for registration! This year, Holy Apostles will also offer Greek School for adult beginners and intermediate speakers! All classes will begin in an online format with the ability to easily transition to in-person classroom learning should Metropolis guidelines permit.

Holy Apostles Greek School is for children Preschool-sixth grade and is dedicated to offering an exceptional educational program in a child-centered, child-friendly environment where learning is exciting and an act of fellowship. Our overall objective is to teach students the necessary skill set to communicate in the Greek language. Therefore, prominence is placed on conversational skills and introducing students to Greek culture, civilization, and traditions.

This guide includes all the information for tuition, supply list, and mail in registration. If you'd like to register online please visit our website at holyapostleschurch.com We can't wait for you to join us!

GREEK SCHOOL GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

Holy Apostles Greek School will follow the guidelines set forth by both the Public Health Officials and the Metropolis of Chicago, for everyone's safety. We are excited to begin Greek School on September 10, 2020 and are planning a flexible program that can be modified throughout the year based on fluctuating conditions! Are new learning materials include both hard copy books and e-learning tools for seamless integration from online to in-person.

We will begin classes on-line with the goal of phasing to in-person lessons as conditions permit. We will host a virtual parent Open House in early September to update you on detailed plans and to discuss conditions at that time. Please note that supplies will not be needed until in-person or hybrid classes take place.
